

Advice from the Class of 2017

- “Senior year is full of lots of fun, exciting, and also stressful experiences. Stay on top of your responsibilities, but overall have fun in every moment because it truly is your first set of “last times” for a lot.” – Alyssa Jamison, Allied Health
- “Apply for scholarships NOW!” – Karen Rivera, Allied Health
- “Do not stop working hard, apply to colleges in the beginning of the year, reach out for help.” –Camille Sipe, Healthcare Science
- “Give Senior Seminar a chance, you learn some important stuff that you’ll need later on in life.” – Construction Student
- “Pay attention to deadlines, they may seem far away, but they come up fast.” –Chloe Thomas, Visual Communications
- “My advice for next year’s seniors would be to go your own path. Whatever you decide, it’s up to you.” – Nick Redican, Visual Communications
- “Be kind to one another, spread more positivity, and remember everyone has their own story.” –Visual Communications Student
- “Set yourself up so you are prepared for when you graduate.” –Brandon Bean, Public Safety
- “Listen to Ms. Slattery, she knows what she is talking about.” – Collision Repair Student
- “Take the year seriously and end on a high note.” – Andre Ewing, Visual Communications
